Daleville Christian Church

August 2014

From the Pastor

August 2014

I am back from vacation and therefore bring some reflections on DCC and its work for Jesus Christ. The Bible has not changed. The message of the gospel has not changed. The world we seek to share the message with HAS changed. It has changed dramatically. Since the world is changing, it does not help our work to say and do exactly as we used to say and do. Advertising changes not because the product changes (automobiles have been around for 100 years but the way we talk about them (and their features) have changed). Advertising must find a way to communicate to people who are different (and communicate differently than people used to communicate). We have done that to some extent, making information on the church and the sermons available on the web. Our Facebook page is a way to communicate. But how shall we talk about Jesus and Jesus' message to others?

We want to be truthful and not deceptive (2 Corinthians 4:2). That same passage says the Apostle set forth the truth plainly. What was plain in 1995 is NOT plain today. Are we communicating PLAINLY to THIS generation? Are YOU speaking the truth of Jesus PLAINLY so people can hear. [For similar proof of the problem a new book has been published "Talkin' Tarheel" that explains how people in North Carolina speak differently than they used to (and there are over 100 dialects and sub-dialects).] Speaking "plainly" may not be easy. Jesus spoke Aramaic. Paul spoke Greek. Are we speaking "plainly" to those who need to hear (and want to hear) the gospel of Jesus?

Peace, G

Praying for YOUR Church

Every Monday is an opportunity to come to the sanctuary and pray for Jesus' church here at DCC. Here are some guidelines as to those prayers:

Top Ten Things to Pray for the Church (from God's Word)

Please pray. . .

- . . .for the Lord to strengthen the church. Making the churches stronger in the faith encouraging the churches. Acts 15:41 (NIV) 41 He went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches
- (Acts 20:28-31). . . for the Lord to keep watch over us and our teaching.
- (Acts 20:28-31) . . .for the Lord to help guard us. (Acts 20:28-31) Keep watch over yourselves and all the flock. . . So be on your guard!
- . . .the Lord to direct us to or find for us gospel deeds of love, mercy and justice. (Matthew 25:31-46)
- . . .that the Lord keep us from fear.(Psalm 46)
- . . .that the people would listen to the Lord and set their hearts to honor the Lord. (Malachi 2:2)
- . . .that the people -- humble themselves and pray. --seek the face of the Lord. --turn from their wicked ways. --that the Lord forgive our sin and heal His church. (2 Chronicles 7:14)
- . . .that we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, meeting together and encouraging one another. (Hebrews 10:23-25)
- . . .that the Lord reveal to us our sins. (Job 13:23)
- . . .that we confess our sins. (1 John 1:9)
