What Would You Say?

In the coming weeks, DCC welcomes back one-fourth to one-third of the congregation. What do we tell them? What has happened in Jesus' church while they have been away? Will the quarterly reports for the first quarter be sufficient to tell them what has happened? Can reports capture a sense of what is happening spiritually in Jesus' church? Will the reports talk about answered prayer? Will the reports talk about what aid was offered in Jesus' name? Can the love of God expressed, shared, and prayed through be grasped in a report or conversation? Would one re-telling be sufficient? Can the growing participation in helping local families through the thirty-pieces-of-silver purses truly be quantified? Or is the whole GREATER than the sum of the parts? What will you say? It is up to ALL of us to share. The Apostle Paul traveled in and out of the church in Corinth. He wrote often of "when I come to you." Once he wrote: (1 Cor. 14:26) "Everything must be done so that the church may be built up." For those who travel and for those who do not travel, the work of building up the church continues and remains. What will you say?
