Pastor on Halloween ..

Halloween is great. It is the ONLY time we allow/expect people to dress up as someone/something else. Why only once a year? I don't know. Other cultures/societies did it more often: other holidays, parties, even costume parties. And today we tend to leave the costumes to children and young people. Why? I'm not sure. I enjoyed dressing up to take my children trick or treating. Halloween used to be about death and spirits. It still can be. That is the most Christian use of Halloween. Halloween can be a time of reminding people of death and the transience of life. We remind people of that so they can think about something beyond this life--God, and our Lord Jesus. When we point to the grave, Jesus' people have a chance to point beyond the grave. Have a happy Halloween. You can, you know, Jesus' people know all about life beyond death.
